

Call You mine

The air is charged between you and me.
The rush and the longing every time I see... I see you
My heart skips a beat, when you walk by.
I'm drawn to you and your beautiful eyes.

I'll call you mine.
I'll call you mine.

You don't know it yet, but I do.
When I get close, I know you feel it, too.
Don't worry, I can wait until you see... you see me
What's right in front of you and what can be

I'll call you mine.
I'll call you mine.

And I'll call you mine.
I'll call you mine.
One day, I'll call you mine.
Yeah, I'll call you mine.
