

I Hear You

You drink your coffee sweet
You dreamily looking around, when you eat
Always thinking about a new, new idea
I never met you, but this one thing is clear

I stopped looking for you, 'cause I know, you're on your way
When you're finally here, it's gonna be our lucky day
Whatever I say, to you I'll never lie
I never met you, but you're so close that I

I hear you
I hear you
I hear you
I hear you

I know, you always wanna be right
Surely, now and then we'll end up having a fight
But I know, the two of us we will fit
I never met you, but loving I cannot, cannot quit

I don't even know you name
With age and hair and seize it's just the same
I never heard the sound of your voice
But when I do I'll come to you
You know, I'll have no choice

I hear you
I hear you
I hear you
I hear

I hear you
I hear you
I hear you

I hear you
I hear you
I hear you
I hear you
