

Jessie

Late at night Jessie had a thought
Jessie thought,
That all her pictures were odd
She set those
With her boyfriend on fire
And she thought,
That she would be just fine but
Hey Jessie, don't do that!

There she stood
At the kitchen sink
Such an awful guy,
How could she think that
He was worth more than a flame
For ever trusting him
Makes her blush in shame, oh
Hey Jessie, don't do that!

In that moment
She was lost in thought
She didn't realize,
That the flames burned hot
The licking flames
Caught the drapes an floors
She spun around,
But disaster took its course, oh
Hey Jessie, don't do that!

Seconds later
The whole house was ablaze
She made it out, but there was
Shock and awe in her face
Like a lunatic she ran around
And in the distance
She heard the sirens sound, oh
Hey Jessie, don't do that!
Oh oh oh oh

*Jessie, I told you,
Don't do that
Now look, what you have done
You could have died, you stupid!
What are you gonna say,
When the cops get you?
They will say, that you're crazy
And take you to the loony bin
Jessie, run for your life
Run fast and run far
Jessie, I said run!!!*

Late at night Jessie had a thought
Jessie thought,
That all her pictures are odd
She set those
With her boyfriend on fire
And she thought,
That she would be just fine but
Oh Jessie, don't do that!

Looking at the house
That turned to coal
She took to her heels
And only had one goal
To run as far and fast as she could
To hang around that place
Would do you no good
Oh Jessie, don't do that!
Past is past!

Just run fast, run fast, yeah!
Oh run fast, run fast, yeah!
