

Mellow

Ever feel you have wings
Carried by the sound of tender strings?
The waves and steady roll
Of the bases, they take control.

Nothing ever gives me so much truth.
Every note there to calm and sooth
Surrounded by the faintest haze
And glowing so bright.

Something you can feel but never touch.
Embraces me, gives me a rush.
It excites me and makes me feel so mellow.

When the tension builds and
Hits that special point, it gives me chills.
They slowly ripple down my spine.
Make my heart and soul glow and shine.

Nothing ever gives me so much truth.
Every note there to calm and sooth
Surrounded by the faintest haze,
And glowing so bright.

Something you can feel but never touch.
Embraces me, gives me a rush.
It excites me or makes me feel so mellow.

Nothing ever gives me so much truth.
Every note there to calm and sooth
Surrounded by the faintest haze,
And glowing so bright.

Something you can feel but never touch.
Embraces me, gives me a rush.
It excites me or makes me feel so mellow.
