

The Moon Ain't Shine

My baby left me
He left me at home
My baby left me
He left me all alone

And it's so dark, so dark
And the moon ain't shine
On me

I'm sitting here crying
I'm crying, I'm all alone
I'm sitting here howling
I'm howling like dog

And it's so dark so dark
And the moon ain't shine
On meeeeeee

He took away my car
He took away my keys
He broke my heart
And left it in pieces

And it's so dark, so dark
And the moon ain't shine
On me

'Cause my baby left me
He left me at home
My baby left me
He left me all alone

And it's so dark, so dark
And the moon ain't shine
On meeee
