

Unleashed

Never write a letter
You'll never get too far
If you're gonna chase a shadow
You need some stamina
As well as in some other
Other activities

Anticipate her wishes
Or she will disappear
But if you get too clingy
She's gonna get out of here
Slipping through your fingers
She's like a cloud of smoke

Like she walks, she talks,
She knocks you of your feet
When she comes close
You know that's what you need
She's here, then she's gone
She's wild to the bone
She's like a hurricane
Can't put a leash on

The multitude of scratches
They fit her fingernails
You can connect the lines
To your hickey trails
She is always on top
On top of your world

You never mind her mood
Don't mind her attitude
Cause if you can't deal
With her manner
You'll deal with solitude
Though she drives you crazy
With the things she can do

Like she walks, she talks,
She knocks you of your feet
When she comes close
You know that's what you need
She's here, then she's gone
She's wild to the bone
She's like a hurricane
Can't put a leash on

Like she walks, she talks,
She knocks you of your feet
When she comes close
You know that's what you need
She's here, then she's gone
