

You Carry Love

It's in your eyes
Your bright sparkling eyes
It's in your smile
Joy in disguise

It's in your heart
The warmth of your heart
It's in the firmness
Of your hands
Tender guard ouhhhh

The way you speak
Voicing the truth
The way you laugh
A sound light and smooth

The way you think
A mind so bright
I've never seen
The way you trust
Never in between

You carry love
That's what I've been Waiting for
You carry love
That's what I've been
Looking for
You carry love
That's what I've been
Craving for
You carry love

It's how you keep
Calm in the storm
It's how you sooth me
In pain or harm

It's how you move about
With a straight spine
It's how you walk this earth
Holding you head high ouhhhh

You carry love
That's what I've been Waiting for
You carry love
That's what I've been
Looking for
You carry love
That's what I've been
Craving for
You carry love
